

when a music unheard grows in your breast give it rest and save it

however many men may say try to get it out today tell them they can't have it for a music is a gentle thing something sung which cannot sing people don't believe it to let it stay in your heart until its ready is an art far above the move to give it

5-22-80