

the night that we said no was the night that we said yes an abstention is a claim to something else refusal is a higher admittance taking nothing gained us all saying no was more than the avoidance of a fall

the night that we said no we took the only way to go with that lesson we'll be blessed for we'll be right when we say yes

8-14-80