

The Buddha was a bucko
who knew the pain of life,
he forsook the pleasures of the world
to enjoy a life of strife.

The Buddha was a bucko
who suffered, and then he died.
Now he's gone; there's no way to tell whether he was right, or whether he just lied.

9-23-81