NEWS RELEASE

DUMB BUT WONDERFUL POEM TO MARGO

I would love you more except I must spend such time in loving everything you touch.

I would love you less except every rainbow demands both sun and rain.

I would love you as much as I do except that I'm too busy doint it.

I would to tell you how much just shut my mouth
and look at the sky
 and feel your heartbeat
next to mine.

I would say I do but for the time
 I take in doint it.
